Oklahoma City, OK 73013

This office acknowledges receipt of a claim from the above-referenced claimant alleging water damage to claimant's home located at 15505 Daybright Drive on September 25, 2024, when a City water main located on Lone Oak Drive behind claimant's home failed. The broken main caused high pressure water to spray on claimant's home, causing damage to the roof, gutters, and interior. Damages are alleged in the amount of $43,879.45, including the cost of roof repairs, gutter replacement, water mitigation, and cleaning. This amount is supported by documentation. Claimant has agreed to accept and this office recommends full and final settlement of this claim in the amount of $25,000.

Section 153(A) of the Governmental Tort Claims Act provides:

- A. The state or a political subdivision shall be liable for loss resulting from its torts or the torts of its employees acting within the scope of their employment subject to the limitations and exceptions specified in The Governmental Tort Claims Act and only where the state or political subdivision, if a private person or entity, would be liable for money damages under the laws of this state. The state or a political subdivision shall not be liable under the provisions of The Governmental Tort Claims Act for any act or omission of an employee acting outside the scope of the employee's employment.

51 O.S. 2023 Supp. §153(A).

According to the Oklahoma Supreme Court, a prima facie case of negligence is established by showing the following: "(1) a duty owed by the defendant to protect the plaintiff from injury, (2) a failure to properly exercise or perform that duty and (3) the plaintiff's injuries are proximately caused by the defendant's failure to exercise his duty of care." McKellips v. Saint Francis Hospital, Inc., 741 P.2d 467, 470 (Okla. 1987) (citations omitted).

Proximate cause has two components - legal causation and cause in fact. Id. Cause in fact is determined by the "but for" test: "The defendant's conduct is a cause of the event if the event would not have occurred but for that conduct." Id. (citations omitted). "Proximate cause" is also a synonym for "legal cause." BLACK'S LAW DICTIONARY, 804 (6th Ed. 1990). To clarify this issue, the Oklahoma Supreme Court has further defined proximate cause: "The proximate cause of an event must be that which in a natural and continuous sequence, unbroken by an independent cause, produces the event and without which the event would not have occurred." Gaines v. Providence Apartments, 750 P.2d 125, 126-27 (Okla. 1987) (citations omitted).

A City may be liable for damages if it negligently permits water to escape from its water supply system. Blackburn v. City of Healdton, 14 P.2d 943, 945 (Okla. 1932) citing Miller Grocery Co. v. Des Moines, 192 N.W. 306, 307-08 (Iowa 1923).

A City is not an insurer of its water mains. Nevertheless, if it fails to remedy a rupture after notice thereof, and simply, by its inaction, permits continuance of resultant damage to private property, it is guilty of negligence. City of Muskogee v. Turner, 98 P.2d 1095, 1097 (Okla. 1940).

The office is in receipt of information from the Line Maintenance Division of the Utilities Department regarding this incident. This information indicates that there were previous reports of defects on this segment of water main within the five (5) years prior to this incident.

Based on the above information and applicable Oklahoma law, it is the opinion of this office that this claim should be approved, and that the Municipal Counselor should be authorized to Confess Judgment without admission of liability in the amount of $25,000 and all costs of the action in the District Court. If Council agrees, a Resolution to that effect has been prepared.
