XII. Comments from Council

Councilmember Cooper mentioned that Oklahoma City University had their matriculation a couple of weeks ago, and it was nice seeing the freshmen run across the campus in preparation of graduation in four years. He noted that he received a text message from Councilmember Nice yesterday, shortly before his 4:00 p.m. World Literature class, informing him that Pastor Reed of Fairview Missionary Baptist Church had passed away. He said it is always a difficult moment for adults in a position of authority to receive upsetting news in front of young people. He noted that after his students watched the 1960s film Phyisco, he had the opportunity to honor Pastor Reed by sharing an article that he pulled from The Oklahoman about what life was like for Pastor Reed to have met the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and to have visited the church in Birmingham a few months before its bombing, which

XII. claimed the lives of four girls. He noted that he was a part of the sanitation workers strike here in Oklahoma and dedicated a half century to the people of Oklahoma City and to the cause of nonviolence, justice, and equality. Councilmember Cooper mentioned that he heard Pastor Reed speak for the first time during a town hall regarding the Oklahoma County jail. He said it was like looking into the future; he paved a way for us. He also mentioned that he had the honor of visiting Fairview in February for Black History Month, where he received an award from Pastor Reed. He stated that a few weeks ago, he finally sent him a “thank you” note that he kept putting off, expressing how much it meant to him and his family to have received that award. He said he would have been devastated if he had not sent that note. He advised everyone that if someone in your life means a lot to you—a close friend, neighbor, or family member—now is the time to write that simple note of gratitude for their existence; it will go a long way. He extended much love to the family at Fairview Missionary Baptist Church on behalf of his family and Ward 2.

Councilmember Hinkle stated that in July 2023, the Earlywine Park YMCA had 28,200 check-ins, and in July 2024, they had 28,100. He noted that this is relevant because we opened the Senior Center just three or four blocks away, and he is happy to report that in July of this year, the Senior Center had 16,500 check-ins, which did not affect the YMCA at all. He noted that somewhere between 530 and 800 people utilize that center daily, which makes him happy. He said it is a great addition to south Oklahoma City.

Councilmember Hinkle expressed that it has been three years since we lost Mark Ruffin. He is always in his thoughts.

Councilmember Nice thanked the community and our Parks Department for the grand reopening of the Minnis Lakeview Recreation Center this past Saturday. She encouraged those who had not seen the improvements to go visit the center and support it by signing up for the programs. She stated that the residents have organized and formed a committee to help support the center, and she knows that they will continue to do so. She thanked Naisha Morris of the Parks Department for working extremely hard with our seniors to ensure that they had all the programming they needed. She expressed to her a job well done and encouraged her to continue doing great work for our communities.

Councilmember Nice inquired about who is responsible for maintaining library facilities. She said a couple of residents reached out to her about the leak, tarp, and mold on the top of the building. She hopes to get these concerns addressed for our residents and those who patronize the library to ensure further actions do not have to be remediated.

Councilperson Nice congratulated the Ambassador Concert Choir as they officially kicked off their celebration of 45 years on Saturday. They have asked for everyone’s continued support during their new season. She said it is a blessing for a choir to be around for 45 years, especially when one of the main visionaries of that organization is no longer with us; just having the ability to carry on that torch and vision is always an accomplishment, and the membership continues to stay steady.

Councilmember Nice provided information about how you can get involved in the NE 23rd Street Enhancement Project. She said you can visit our website at vision.okc.gov/ne-23rd-street-enhancement-project or attend a meeting that will be held on September 5th, 6th, or 12th. She stated that she is excited about what this will bring to the community. People’s voices are needed, so please plan to attend or learn about how you can participate.

Councilmember Nice announced a Peace Walk will be held this Saturday, beginning at 1:00 p.m. from the Ralph Ellison Library. She looks forward being a part of it.

XII. Councilmember Nice extended her condolences to the family of Pastor John A. Reed, Jr., who was a giant in our community and the pastor of Fairview Missionary Baptist Church for over or at least 62 years, which says a lot about his leadership, voice, and trust in his church family. He passed away from sudden health issues. She mentioned she had the opportunity to hear one of his last sermons, “Be a Dreamer,” at the Freedom Fiesta two Sundays ago and that his last words to her were, “If your mind can conceive it and your mind can believe it, you can achieve it.” She also mentioned that he was acknowledged by the Mayor of Stillwater as he broke barriers at Stillwater High School before going to Langton University and becoming an advocate for historically black colleges; a part of the sanitation workers’ strike and civil rights movement; an officer of the National Baptist Convention; and recently received the Lynn Institute Lifetime Legacy award. She said she was fortunate enough to receive the “Spirit of the Community Award” from him, which meant something to her. She asked that we continue to pray for his daughters and their families, as well as the Fairview Missionary Baptist Church, and noted that his legacy will never be forgotten.

Councilmember Stonecipher mentioned an article that he read on Sunday, stating that Oklahoma landed two spots on the national list of most scenic locations in a survey poll of 3,000 Americans, and the Myriad Botanical Gardens in downtown Oklahoma City was one of them. He read an excerpt saying, “The Myriad Botanical Gardens in downtown Oklahoma City is a photographer’s paradise, offering breathtaking seasonal displays of plants and flowers that transform the outdoor gardens into a vibrant, colorful canvas. He congratulated the Myriad Gardens Foundation staff, as well as the Board of Directors, on receiving this award.
